

CAUTION

Be advised that equine activities take place on these premises and that all equine activities involve inherent risks.

Proceed at your own risk

“Inherent risks of equine activities” shall mean those dangers or conditions which are an integral part of equine activities, including, but not limited to:

- i) the propensity of any equine to behave in ways that may result in injury, harm or death to persons on or around them and/or damage property in their vicinity;
- ii) the unpredictability of an equine’s reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movement and unfamiliar objects, persons and other animals;
- iii) the equine’s response to certain hazards such as surface and subsurface objects;
- iv) collisions with other equines, animals, people and objects;
- v) the potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as failing to maintain control over the equine or to act within his or her ability.
